ROBERT H. CASTELLINI

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

On Nov. 2, 2005, the Cincinnati Reds announced that the controlling interest in the club would be acquired by a group of Cincinnatians led by Robert H. Castellini, Chairman of Castellini Company.

Other members of the group acquiring the controlling interest include Thomas L. Williams and W. Joseph Williams, Jr., President and Chairman, respectively, of Cincinnati based North American Properties.

The sale of the club was completed on Jan. 19, 2006, and Mr. Castellini assumed control of the Club as its Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Castellini has been involved in Major League Baseball for close to 40 years. His involvement included a minor interest in the Cincinnati Reds as part of the Williams family ownership until that interest was sold in 1984.

He became a partner in the Texas Rangers in 1989 and the Baltimore Orioles in 1993. From 1995 until 2006 Mr. Castellini was a major partner in the St. Louis Cardinals. His interest in the Cardinals was sold as a condition of his acquisition of the Cincinnati Reds.

Mr. Castellini has been the Chairman of Castellini Group of Companies since 1992, following tenures as Executive Vice President from 1967–1970 and President from 1970–1992. The Castellini Company businesses include perishable distribution, food processing, public warehousing, transportation logistics and leasing.

In 1963, he graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in economics and after two years as an officer in the U.S. Army he received his MBA from Wharton Graduate School in 1967.

Mr. Castellini is very active in the Cincinnati community. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees for Xavier University as well as Chairman of Xavier's Development Committee, member and Past President of the Cincinnati Business Committee, a member of the Commercial and Commonwealth Clubs of Cincinnati as well as past president of both clubs, member of the Chief Executives Organization and Past President of the Young Presidents' Organization, Cincinnati Chapter. He donates his time as a board member of the Cincinnati Center City Development Committee (3CDC), chairman of the Joint Banks Steering Committee, Board Chair of Cincinnati Equity Fund and was instrumental in establishing the Good Samaritan Free Health Center and the Endowed Chair in Cardiothoracic Surgery at the Christ Hospital.

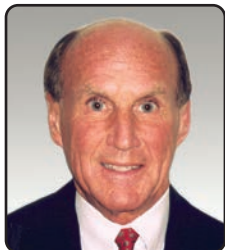

He has also been a member of the boards of directors for PNC Bank, Ohio and United States Playing Card Company, Comair Airlines, Babson College Board of Trustees, Denison University Board of Trustees and President of the Queen City Club. Mr. Castellini has been Chairman of the Boards of Trustees for both Tri Health, Inc., the Good Samaritan Hospital and the Cincinnati Zoo, a Board of Trustees member for the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center and the Cincinnati Art Museum.

2023 NOTES

2022 REVIEW

The Reds finished the 2022 season 62-100 and tied the Pirates for fourth place in the National League Central Division, 31.0 games behind the first-place Cardinals. Sixty-six players, including 38 pitchers, appeared in at least 1 game for the Reds, both new single-season franchise records. Reds pitchers tied single-season franchise records for number of pitchers who started at least 1 game (17) and number of pitchers with at least 1 save (10). In 62 combined starts, Reds rookie starting pitchers RHP Graham Ashcraft, RHP Hunter Greene and LHP Nick Lodolo went 14-26 with a 4.34 ERA. All 3 made Major League debuts in 2022. RHP Luis Castillo, traded to the Mariners in July, was the Reds' only representative at the All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium. Greene was named National League Player of the Week for June 6-12, the only Reds player so honored in 2022. Thirty-seven players made 57 appearances on an injured list. IF Kyle Farmer and RHP Hunter Strickland were the only players to spend the entire season on the roster without a stint on an IL.

- In the 6-3 win on 4/10 at Atl, Greene (22 years, 247 days) became the youngest starting pitcher to make his Major League debut for the Reds since Mike Leake received no decision in a 3-1 Reds win on 4/11/10 vs the Cubs (22 years, 150 days).

- From 6/6-6/7, Greene and Ashcraft became the first Reds starting pitchers to retire 30 consecutive batters since 6/9-6/10, 1979, when Tom Seaver and Paul Moskau retired 35 straight...in the expansion era (since 1961), Greene and Ashcraft are the only rookie starting pitchers of any Major League team to combine to retire at least 30 consecutive batters.
- Ashcraft became the first Reds pitcher to post an ERA as low as 1.14 through his first 4 Major League apps, all starts, since RHP Chris Reitsma had a 1.03 ERA through his first 4 starts of 2001...Ashcraft was the first Reds pitcher in 2022 to make 3 consecutive quality starts (5/27-6/7), and he did it in his second, third and fourth career apps (3-0, 0.47, 19.1ip, 11h, 1er, 3bb, 10k, 1hr, .164baa).

2022 REVIEW

2023 NOTES

OPPONENTS

Buck Showalter of the Mets was named 2022 National League Manager of the Year in voting of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. New York finished 101-61 (.623), tied with the Braves for the second-best record in the National League behind the Dodgers (111-51, .685), but was eliminated by the Padres in the best-of-3 Wild Card Series. By winning Manager of the Year honors for the fourth time, Showalter tied one record and established another. His previous victories were in the American League, in 1994 with the Yankees, in 2004 with the Rangers and in 2014 with the Orioles. He joined Bobby Cox and Tony La Russa as the only 4-time winners of the award. Showalter's victory for a fourth different club broke the tie he had shared with La Russa. It also marked the first victory for a Mets manager since the BBWAA started voting in 1983. Runners-up in the voting for the Mets were Davey Johnson in 1984 and 1986 and Willie Randolph in 2006. In 2022, no manager was named on every ballot.

2023 NOTES

HISTORY

RHP Luis Castillo was the Reds' lone representative in the 2022 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium. In the American League's 3-2 win, he threw a scoreless fifth inning by retiring Det's Miguel Cabrera (6-3), Hou's Kyle Tucker (strikeout) and Min's Luis Arraez (strikeout).

On July 29, Castillo was traded to the Mariners for minor leaguers IF Noelvi Marte, IF Edwin Arroyo, RHP Levi Stoudt and RHP Andrew Moore. Marte (#2) and Encarnacion-Strand (#5) began the 2023 season rated by Baseball America as Top 5 prospects in the Reds' organization.

While with the Reds, Castillo was a 2-time National League All-Star and their Opening Day pitcher in 2019 and 2021. Since his Major League debut in 2017 and through his July 2022 trade to the Mariners, he was the Reds' leader in wins, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts.

April 3, 2006 – George W. Bush became the first sitting president ever to throw out an Opening Day first pitch in Cincinnati and only the second sitting president to participate in the pre-game ceremony. President Richard M. Nixon threw out the first pitch prior to the 1970 All-Star Game at Riverfront Stadium. Cincinnati native William Howard Taft is the only other sitting president ever to attend a game in Cincinnati.

Sept. 26, 2007 – At Great American Ball Park, Brandon Phillips hit his 30th home run (off Hou's Juan Gutierrez) to become only the second second baseman in Major League history - and only the third Reds player - ever to produce 30 HR and 30 SB in the same year.

June 9, 2008 – Ken Griffey Jr. becomes baseball's sixth batter to reach the 600 Home Run milestone, hitting a first-inning blast off the Marlins' Mark Hendrickson in Miami.

Sept. 28, 2010 – Jay Bruce's home run on the first pitch from Tim Lincecum in the bottom of the ninth inning of the 3-2 win vs the Astros is the fifth HR in Major League history that clinches a team's postseason berth. The Reds win the NL Central for the first time since 1995.

July 14, 2015 – Major League Baseball's 86th All-Star Game takes place at Great American Ball Park, as 43,656 are in attendance for a 6-3 AL win. 3B Todd Frazier and P Aroldis Chapman represent the Reds. The day before, Frazier won the ASG's Home Run Derby.

June 6, 2017 – Second baseman Scooter Gennett becomes the first player in franchise history to hit four home runs in a game in a 13-1 victory over the Cardinals at Great American Ball Park.

Sept. 4, 2019 – Michael Lorenzen becomes the first player since Babe Ruth to earn the victory, hit a home run and play outfield in the same game. Ruth did it on June 13, 1921.

2020 Season – The 2020 season was shortened to 60 games because of a global pandemic caused by the COVID-19 virus.

August 16, 2021 – Joey Votto recorded the 2,000th hit of his career, a single off Michael Rucker at Great American Ballpark. He joined Johnny Bench as the only Reds players with at least 2,000 hits and 300 home runs.

REDS BALLPARKS THROUGH THE YEARS

UNION GROUNDS (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

AVENUE GROUNDS (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

BANK STREET GROUNDS (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

LEAGUE PARK (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

PALACE OF THE FANS (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

CROSBY FIELD (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosby Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

RIVERFRONT STADIUM/CINERGY FIELD (1970-2002)

The Reds shared Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field with the NFL's Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK (2003-PRESENT)

On July 7, 2000, Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces by announcing a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. The facility, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard systems and an array of historical elements scattered throughout. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system provides a direct feed to scoreboard operations that includes a variety of in-game, season and career information about each player that can be shown on the scoreboards high above left center field and in right field.

The first black player in the Major Leagues, Jackie Robinson played for the Dodgers from 1947-56. The 6-time All-Star was National League Rookie of the Year in 1947 and NL Most Valuable Player in 1949. In 1997, the 50th anniversary of his debut, every team in baseball retired his number. The last Major League player to wear #42 was Yankees pitcher Mariano Rivera, who retired following the 2013 season.

FRED HUTCHINSON

Born: 8/12/1919 Birthplace: Seattle, WA Died: 11/12/1964 Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson's 443 victories and .544 winning percentage as Reds manager still rank among the club's all-time best. The Reds won at least 90 games in 3 of his 6 seasons and in 1961 took the National League pennant. But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only 3 years later by the sadness of Hutch's death. The courage, class and determination Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and he died that November. The following year, Hutch's No. 1 became the first uniform jersey number in Reds history to be retired. Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past Reds winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench and Sean Casey.

He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989. Bench began his career by winning the 1968 National League Rookie of the Year Award. He ended his career with a .267 batting average and 389 homers, including 327 as a catcher that at the time stood as a record for NL catchers. On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), fourth in runs scored (1,091) and fifth in hits (2,048) and doubles (381). He appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976, when the Reds swept the New York Yankees. 24*TONY PEREZ*Born: 5/14/1942 Birthplace: Camaguey, Cuba Number Retired: 5/27/2000

The heart and soul of Cincinnati's Big Red Machine World Series championship teams of 1975 and 1976, Tony Perez was inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame in August 1998 and into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2000. He was the third member of the Big Red Machine elected to the Cooperstown Hall, joining catcher Johnny Bench (1989) and second baseman Joe Morgan (1990). A 7-time All-Star and MVP of the 1967 All-Star Game, Perez appeared in 5 World Series and 6 League Championship Series. He ranks among the Reds all-time leaders in RBI (1192, 2nd), home runs (287, 4th), total bases (3246, 4th), games (1948, 6th), at-bats (6846, 6th), hits (1934, 6th), extra-base hits (682, 6th) and doubles (339, 7th). He played 23 seasons from 1964-86 for the Reds, Expos, Red Sox and Phillies. During the 10-year span from 1967-76 he led all Major Leaguers with 1,028 RBI.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK PLAYER STATUES

The home of the Reds features many visible acknowledgements of the club's rich history. Notable among them are the seven statues of Reds greats positioned near the park's entry gates. The first four statues installed at the ballpark feature players from the Crosley Field era while the others represent three of the legends from the Big Red Machine club of the 1970s. Each of the statues was created by nationally-renowned artist Tom Tsuchiya. In addition to the Reds, Mr. Tsuchiya has produced works of art for Major League Baseball, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and the National Football League.

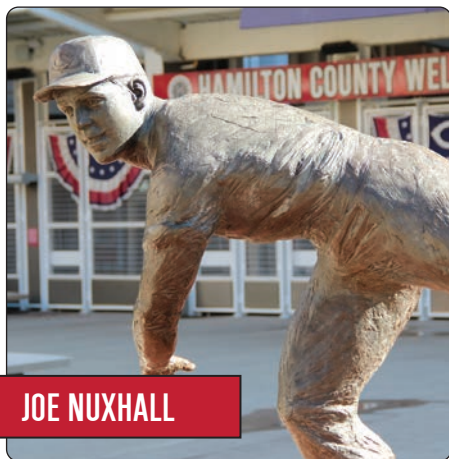

TOM TSUCHIYA

CROSLY ERA STATUES

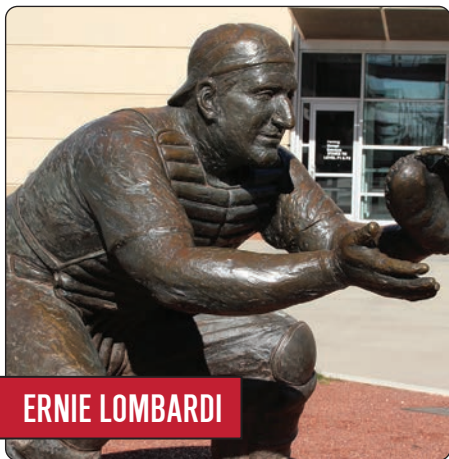

The four statues located at Great American Ball Park's Crosley Terrace main entrance represent four players that a fan vote determined best represented the Reds during the 1912–1970 Crosley Field era. The statues are positioned on a contoured field that evokes Crosley's famous outfield incline which was dubbed "the terrace." The scene depicts Joe Nuxhall pitching to Frank Robinson with Ernie Lombardi serving as Nuxhall's battery mate. Standing on-deck, awaiting his turn at the plate, is Ted Kluszewski. The Kluszewski, Nuxhall and Robinson statues were dedicated during Great American Ball Park's inaugural season in 2003. The Lombardi statue followed in 2004.

BIG RED MACHINE STATUES

JOHNNY BENCH

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2011

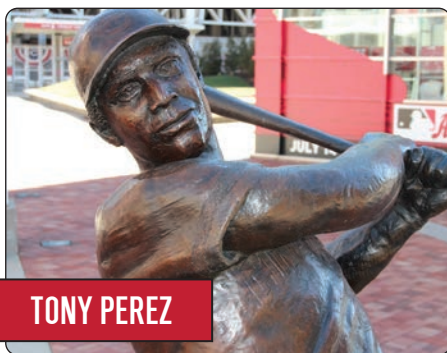

The subject of the first statue commissioned by the Reds Hall of Fame was Johnny Bench, the Big Red Machine's catcher who has been called "Baseball's Greatest Catcher." Known for having one of the most powerful throwing arms in the history of the game, the statue depicts Bench in the act of gunning down a runner trying to steal a base. The statue is located in the Hall of Fame Breezeway, just outside the main entrance to the Reds Hall of Fame on the West side of Great American Ball Park.

JOE MORGAN

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2013

Located at the corner of Joe Nuxhall Way and Second Street on the northwest corner of Great American Ball Park, the Joe Morgan statue captures the Reds' modern era leader in career stolen bases as he breaks for second base on a steal attempt. Possessing a combination of power, speed and superlative defensive skills, Morgan is widely considered to be the best second baseman in baseball history.

TONY PEREZ

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2015

One of the most beloved players in Reds history, Tony Perez was one of the great clutch hitters of his era and was the Big Red Machine's most reliable run producer. Perez's statue depicts "The Big Dog" in the follow-through of his home run swing in the seventh game of the 1975 World Series. Perez's home run sparked the Reds' comeback in the decisive contest that ended with the Reds clinching the first of back-to-back World Championships. The statue is located on Joe Nuxhall Way, near the entrance to the Reds Team Shop. Mounted atop the building directly across the street from the statue is a baseball that appears to be soaring over the building, just as Perez's World Series home run flew over the top of Fenway Park's "Green Monster" in 1975.

PETE ROSE

Dedicated by the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum in 2017

The fourth and final statue in the Big Red Machine series that began with the dedication of the Johnny Bench statue in 2011, the Pete Rose statue was dedicated in 2017 and is adjacent to the Tony Perez statue at the entrance to Great American Ball Park. This tribute to the Cincinnati native and all-time career hits leader depicts Rose in his trademark head first slide. Engineers from GE Aviation were enlisted to construct a special internal frame that allows the statue to accurately depict Rose "in flight."

SEPTEMBER 16, 1988: ONE PERFECT NIGHT

In a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 16, 1988, lefthander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history.

It was only the 14th perfect game of 9 innings or more in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

POSTSEASON

The Reds most recently participated in the playoffs following a 2020 season shortened to 60 games by a global pandemic fueled by the COVID-19 virus, earning 1 of 8 National League playoff spots for their first Postseason berth since 2013. From 2010–2013, the Reds appeared in the Postseason in 3 of 4 seasons, including NL Central Division championships in 2010 and 2012 and a berth in the 2013 Wild Card Game. In club history, that Postseason stretch is matched only by the teams that made 6 playoffs during the Big Red Machine era (1970, '72, '73, '75, '76, '79).

"1919 Black Sox Scandal"

Chicago White Sox Pitcher Eddie Cicotte and outfielder Shoeless Joe Jackson tearfully confessed to a Cook County grand jury that they and third baseman Buck Weaver, center fielder Oscar (Happy) Felsch, first baseman Arnold (Chick) Gandil, utility infielder Fred McMullin, shortstop Charles (Swede) Risberg and pitcher Claude (Lefty) Williams had conspired with known gamblers, allegedly including Arnold Rothstein, to throw the 1919 World Series.

While none of the 8 players were convicted in court, all were banned from the game for life by the first commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to participate and batted .324 in the World Series. He was banned, however, for not exposing his teammates. Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and 6 RBI.

Risberg committed 4 errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost 2 of his 3 starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the jury it was not worth the effort.

2013 WILD CARD GAME

Summary

The Redlegs made their third Postseason appearance in 4 seasons, including National League Central Division championships in 2010 and 2012 and the 2013 Wild Card berth...in franchise history, this successful Postseason stretch is matched only by the teams that made 6 playoff appearances during the Big Red Machine era (1970, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1976, 1979).

Game 1 @ PIT (PNC Park) - Pirates 6, Reds 2

Oct. 1 - The Reds were eliminated from the Postseason following a 6-2 loss at Pittsburgh in the National League Wild Card game...Johnny Cueto started for the Reds and suffered the loss (3.1ip, 7h, 4er, 1bb, 0k, 2hr)...Ryan Ludwick produced 2 of the Reds' 6 hits, including a pair of doubles...in the top of the eighth inning Shin-Soo Choo homered off Tony Watson, the first home run by Choo off a left-hander all season and the first homer all year allowed to a left-handed batter by Watson... Russell Martin (2hr) become only the second Pirates batter ever to homer more than once in the playoffs (Bob Robertson, 3hr, 1971 NLCS at SF)... was the first Postseason game in PNC Park history and the Pirates' first playoff game since the 1992 NLCS vs the Braves.

WILD CARD 2020

2020 WILD CARD SERIES

Summary

In a regular season shortened to 60 games by a global pandemic fueled by the COVID-19 virus, the Redlegs made their first Postseason appearance since the 2013 Wild Card game...as the seventh seed in the National League's 8-team bracket, the Reds played the best-of-3 Wild Card Series in Atlanta at Truist Park and became the first team in Postseason history to be shut out in a series of more than 1 game...their 22-inning scoreless streak was the longest ever to begin the playoffs (20 innings, 1921 New York Giants)...the Reds' active 23-inning scoreless streak, dating back to a 6-2 loss in the 2013 Wild Card game at Pit, is the longest in their Postseason history (18 innings, 10/14/95 – 10/6/2010)...we were shut in consecutive Postseason games for the first time...only twice in their Postseason history were the Reds shut out twice in any series, during Games 1 & 4 of the 1961 World Series vs the Yankees and Games 1 & 3 of the 2010 Division Series vs the Phillies.

Game 1 @ Atl (Truist Park) - Braves 1, Reds 0 (13 innings)

September 30 - In the longest 1-0 game in Postseason history, Braves first baseman Freddie Freeman produced an RBI-single off Amir Garrett in the bottom of the 13th inning...Trevor Bauer became the first pitcher in Postseason history to record at least 12 strikeouts without allowing a walk or a run...his 12 strikeouts are a Reds Postseason record (10k, Homer Bailey, 2012 NLDS Game 3 vs SF)...Bauer joined Don Gullett, José Rijo and Ross Grimsley as the only pitchers in Reds Postseason history to hold an opponent to 2 hits or fewer while throwing at least 7.2 innings...Bauer and Max Fried became the first opposing starters in Postseason history each to throw at least 7.0 scoreless innings without a walk...was just the eighth Postseason game in which both starting pitchers threw at least 7.0 scoreless innings, the first since SF's Madison Bumgarner and NYM's Noah Syndergaard did so in the 2016 National League Wild Card game...was the first Postseason game in history to be scoreless through the first 11 and then 12 innings...the Reds were shut out for the 11th time in their Postseason history (last, 2010 NLDS Game 3 vs Phi)...Reds batters stranded 13 base runners, a new Reds Postseason record (12, 1919 World Series Game 8 at WSox ...the teams combined for a Postseason record 37 strikeouts (34, Red Sox at Dodgers, 2018 World Series Game 3, 18 innings)...Reds batters struck out 16 times, a new Reds Postseason record (15, 1975 NLCS Game 3 at Pit, 10 innings)...Reds pitchers recorded 21 strikeouts, a new Reds Postseason record (16, 2012 NLDS Game 3 vs SF, 10 innings)...was the fourth walkoff loss in Reds Postseason history, their first since Carlton Fisk of the Red Sox homered in the bottom of the 12th inning of the 1975 World Series Game 6 at Fenway Park...was the longest ek ra-inning game in Reds Postseason history, the 14th ek ra-inning game overall and their first since 2012 NLDS Game 3 vs SF (2-1 loss in 10 innings).

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL RULES OF INTEREST

Calculating the Magic Number: Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sacrifice flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. EXCEPTION: The "must-pitch-five-complete-innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

- (1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
- (2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
- (3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.

(4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions;

- (1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher.
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be ended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not end the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Rain Delays: Pursuant to Rule 3.10(a), the manager of the home team shall be the sole judge as to whether a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather conditions or the unfit condition of the playing field, except for the second game of a doubleheader. Pursuant to Rule 3.10(c), the umpire in chief shall be the sole judge as to whether and when a game shall be suspended and as to whether and when play will be resumed. An umpire shall not call a game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

BASEBALL IN GOODYEAR

In 2010 the Reds moved their spring training and player development operations to the west Phoenix, Arizona suburb of Goodyear.

The club made the move from Sarasota, Florida, where it had trained since 1998.

In addition to the spring training and player development operations, Goodyear serves as the summer home for the Reds' rookie Arizona League affiliate.

Spring training games are played at nearby Goodyear Ballpark, a facility the Reds share with the Cleveland Guardians.

On July 14, 2008 the Reds and the City of Goodyear finalized the terms on a binding use agreement that paved the way for the team to move its spring training facilities there in 2010. The team and city broke ground on November 17, 2008.

The agreement includes a 20-year lease that began in 2010 and two 5-year team options.

The Reds' Player Development Complex on South Wood Boulevard includes a 44,000-square foot clubhouse, 6 full practice fields, 2 half fields and an agility field.

The main ballpark seats more than 10,300 fans, including 500 premium box seats, 8,000 fixed seats and space for 2,000 spectators on a grassy berm in the outfield.

The original plans called for the stadium to be the centerpiece of Ballpark Village, a mixed-use development featuring offices, shops, restaurants, housing, hotels and a conference center.

The Guardians' instructional league team moved to Goodyear in September 2008, while their first Major League spring training camp was held in the new shared facility in February 2009.
